

Chiron, 2012, and the Aquarian Age: The Key and How to Use It

A New MP3 Course

Over a series of meditations in early 2008 I asked my spirit guides and the Ascended Masters I work with, “What will happen in 2012?” They responded each time with deep insights into how humans experience their Chiron energies, new views on the nature of wounding and healing, and a process of shifting consciousness about Chiron that leads to healing the wound and ceasing to identify as wounded (we have been taught so far that the Chiron wound cannot really be healed). They showed me that our understanding of this archetype to date represents its infancy in our consciousness, and that we are now ready to mature our understanding of and relationship to it and, in the process, understand ourselves more and on deeper levels as spiritual beings having human experiences.

I was shown that this alternate view and shift in perspective allows us to see how to take full and absolute responsibility for our lives and our energy fields, a major invitation connected with the energetic shifts taking place on earth now that culminate in the end of the Mayan Calendar (a.k.a. 2012). I was told that we can use this view of Chiron to initiate ourselves into Aquarian Age ways of experiencing ourselves and life now, even as we are just at the beginning of the transition out of the Age of Pisces. I have been doing this with myself and my clients with wonderful results, and it is time for this perspective to be widely available.

Chiron, 2012, and the Aquarian Age: The Key and How to Use It is the result of my work to fully articulate the vision I was shown as an astrology teaching. It frames the archetype as the Masters see it: Chiron enables us to heal wounds from the past, mature spiritually, get and live fully present, evolve through choosing compassion in the face of suffering, and seed a high level of consciousness on the planet now that gets the transition to the Aquarian Age started. The course outlines how to change our minds about our experience of pain and suffering in order to get out of the loop of victimhood – to end it forever.

There are two options for ordering. Option 1 is for those who wish to learn the astrology of this new view of Chiron and how to use it in astrological birth charts. Option 2 is for those who want to learn only about 2012 and the mythology and archetype of Chiron.

Option 1

The Course Transcript

The transcript of the entire course in book form will be available in November 2010 as a separate purchase, and can be purchased without the audio files. It will be available through my site and Amazon and other online retailers.

Creating Community: Monthly Skype Classes

Beginning in November 2010, I will host a series of monthly Skype classes for those who purchase the entire course. The focus of these class calls will be to answer questions on the material and to learn to put the information to practical use.

My vision is to create a community for forward-looking astrologers and students to learn more about astrology as a language of energy and Chiron as a teacher for us in this arena.

Students can bring their questions about the material to the calls, and we will use a variety of example charts to bring this new view of Chiron to life. These will include charts that you want to understand more about plus various celebrity and perhaps mundane charts.

If you purchase the entire course, you can opt into these monthly calls whenever you like. Example charts will be sent out via e-mail before each class to the participants signed up for that month. We may have guests join us periodically to share a variety of real-world perspectives on how to live Chiron in healthy, positive, pro-active ways.

Each 90 minute monthly class is $20.
