

From Clients on Their Soul's Journey Soundbite

Thank you fervently.

Your observations are the most accurate and most detailed that I have encountered. Even though you do not know anything about me you caught the outline.

-L.E.

Thanks for a fabulous, content-rich reading. I especially liked that you cited the astrological aspects but spent most of the time on the meaning. I'm excited to share you with my friends.

-O.H.

Thanks MUCH! Such insightful, useful info! You tapped into the vital nuggets.

The Soul's Journey Soundbite you did for me is amazing. In only fifteen minutes it hit most of the major issues I've been dealing with all my life, through years of psychotherapy and spiritual work; and by going so deep, so accurately, it brought up a lot of new and very helpful material. The issue of feeling that I don't matter, that I should keep my mouth shut; the explanation of why I tend to feel burned out; the matter of dealing with Mars energy (thanks for including that Mars-Pluto square - not everybody does, although I've always felt it to be important); and especially the idea of having to "invent my own Plutonian wheel" - it all resonates and pertains. You've given me much to work with. I will definitely be ordering a full-hour session with you.

-I.H.

Thanks, Tom! Just listened through for the first time, and there is lots that resonates with me - especially the first part about Pluto ... certainly speaks to a major blockage I've had for years - thank you. Understanding it better may help me summon the courage to work through it and go easier on myself. Love your work.

Thanks very much, Tom. This definitely gave me a different way of looking at things. You touched on a lot of the complexities of my chart and added new dimensions - I never thought of my nodes being squared by Pluto, I got an aha about the Scorpio Moon conjunct the North Node being about my own emotional truth, and I had no idea my Venus was conjunct Eros! In appreciation,

-L.W.

I just wanted to say THANK YOU! Thank you so much for doing this reading... It really helped me see things that have been puzzling me for a long time.

-C.S.

The Soundbite was very helpful and I am still processing. Your description of the quincunx of Jupiter to Mercury really struck a chord. Hadn't thought that aspect was so powerful, but what you said was very true.

-S.H.

Thank you so much for the Soundbite you did for me – I've listened to it a few times. It has been very helpful to have. Your reading of course was very accurate and clarified so much of what I experience.

-J.H.

Thanks again for sharing your wisdom on such an excellent and eloquent reading.

-D.C.

I've already listened to the MP3 a few times, as there's a whole lot of information to take in and assimilate – especially appreciate the addition of the asteroids, which I've been looking to learn more about recently. Have to say, it's all fascinating and really right on!!

-S.H.

Tom, great job on the Soundbite – thanks so much! A tight, effective wrap-up of the nodal story, and I appreciate your weaving the asteroids into the picture – they really deepen the details.

-A.D.

Thank you for the reading, Tom. It was wonderful. :)

-A.L.

LOVED IT! Thank you – it clarified some things for me and I appreciate you bringing in what you know of me from our previous work to show me how it's actually flowing now.

-L.W.

Wow that was great, Tom! Thanks so much, such valuable and insightful information. I appreciate your ability to communicate clearly and succinctly!

-K.M.

Thank you for sharing your insight and delivering the Soundbite (which is really a mouthful of what I needed to hear) with compassion. I was nervous about receiving a reading, but am happy that I trusted my instincts.

-J.D.

Thanks so much for the Soundbite. I was expecting about 15 minutes but it was a lot longer, so thank you. It really "hit the nail on the head." I think everything you said, Tom, feels true for me. There wasn't a single thing that didn't resonate with my experience in this life so far.

There is so much for me to think about here and I have listened to the soundbite 3 times and taken notes and plan to listen many more times.

I have noted some of the things that you've suggested can move me more towards my north node (and Mercury/5th house) and honour that alongside my natural inclination to do the south node and I hope this will give me a sense of greater fulfilment. (Saturn in the 10th house seems to have overtaken my life in my 30s - the more time and harder I have worked in recent years the further I have got from fulfilment ... the other thing which I said to my boyfriend last week was that "I don't know who I am outside of my work" this very much echoes what you said in the soundbite.) This Soundbite has shown me a way forward to develop more balance and my hope is that balance will help me find greater happiness in my life.

-C.J.

I loved your reading. It is so right on about Pluto being so important. Pluto is at the center of all our family wars on every level. Forgiveness is our only hope. With my Pluto in the 1st, as you said my Pluto enters the room first and I am always getting punished for it and I know it is my biggest lesson is to forgive everyone and myself, which is why I keep incarnating with strong family members who are trying to teach me the same lesson over and over again. Keep up the great work you are doing you will also be a great teacher and healer. I will continue to sing your praises to all I know. I will keep in touch for more readings and will always check out your great site.

-S.M.

Hey Tom – I just finished both Soundbites ... they are both right on. Lots of info and things I've wondered about. This has helped me understand so many things past and present. I will be in touch with you for my own reading.

-T.L.

Thanks so much for the information. Gave me a lot of light.

-M.G.

Tom, this was so spot on! It's funny you mentioned questioning going to church because that was a primary argument between my mother and me growing up.

Communication is often a weird thing for me. I find sometimes words just coming out and I feel I've offended someone even though it's usually something they needed to hear. After your reading perhaps I need to just accept the reactions without feeling guilty.

Good stuff - thanks!

-E.H.
